

Weekend Events: August 27-29, 2021

Excerpted from Salem.org and the Destination Salem App

Friday, August 27

10:00 am-8:00 pm

"Salem Stories" at PEM

Peabody Essex Museum | pem.org

Using selections from PEM's vast collection, see more than 100 works, including paintings, sculpture, textiles, decorative arts, photos, natural history specimens, manuscripts, posters, books, and even a murder weapon.

10:00 am-8:00 pm

"In American Waters" at PEM

Peabody Essex Museum | pem.org

In this exhibition, visitors will also discover the sea as an expansive way to reflect on American culture and environment, learn how coastal and maritime symbols moved inland across the United States, and question what it means to be "in American waters."

11:00 am-5:00 pm

"Cevin Soling: We've Become What We Parody" at the Satanic Temple

Satanic Temple | SalemArtGallery.com

The works serve as critiques of both ourselves and our culture designed to prompt unsettling questions. What kind of world have we created? What do we value, and what do we want to achieve?

12:00 pm-5:00 pm

Broom Making, Book Binding

The Witchery | thewitcherysalem.com

Craft a rustic broom from scratch or bind your own leather grimoire, book of shadows, spell book, art or dream journal- something for all your creative and magickal works! Personalize your projects with pendants, herbs, dried flowers, bones, charms, stencils. Hourly by appointment.

4:00 pm-7:00 pm

Unmasking & Evolution of Negro Election Day and The Black Vote

Hamilton Hall | HamiltonHall.org

Salem United, Inc. and its president Doreen Wade demonstrate how the first black voting system evolved into the "Black Picnic Day" celebration that has been running for 281 years.

7:00 pm

Salem Séances

Omen | omensalem.com

Step into the Spirit Parlor of Omen and experience an authentic Salem Séance with a true spirit medium. Our departed yearn to reach out to us from beyond and the psychic mediums at Omen have helped thousands of people reunite with souls who have crossed over!
